Third Inter-Class Track and Field Meet
Saturday Afternoon

The Axe

By Frances Randolph

EASTER VACATION is over, and the University is pointing toward the final wind-up of the year. Unfortunately, although technically speaking, the examinations constitute the "wind-up," most of the poor over-worked students are much too busy to pay any attention to this quite incidental phase of the situation. It does seem hardly reasonable that the faculty should insist upon having the examinations at the time when they would be most sure to conflict with some of our most pressing social engagements!

FOR anyone who has traveled very much on the Potomac Park busses during the past week, the incident of the curious lady from out of town and the impatient driver is probably not a new one. The lady, after much verbal maneuvering, boards the bus and proceeds upon her way rejoicing. But not so the driver! "Is this the way you go to see the orange blossoms?" she asks as the bus approaches the Lincoln Memorial. "No," says the driver. "Do you go where I can see them?" "No." "Well, where can I get a bus that does?" "I don't know, lady." And as the bus nears Seventeenth Street: "The cherry blossoms are down that way, lady," says the bus driver with a vague wave of the hand, and slowing up. "You don't go down that way, do you?" "No." "Well, is there a bus that does?" "I don't know," says the outraged driver, and passes the corner. "I wanted to get off there," says the lady indignantly, and adds much about the politeness of bus drivers in the Nation's Capital. G. W. may be sorrowful at the end of the holidays, but we fear that our friends the bus drivers are glad to get back to their usual cargo of college students.

YE freshmen, having suffered not at all, except possibly from disappointment at the hands of the lordly sophs, are to band together and defend future freshmen from a similar disappointment. The dear children do hate to be treated as "one of the family" so soon. They love the distinction of persecution—and class spirit thrives on it.

HEADLINES in a Washington paper announce the extraordinary news that "G. W. Law Students Will Dine." It's the unusual thing which makes news interest, say the pros.

THE dramatic festival is upon us in full force. Opening with the vodvil the other night in the gymnasium, the festival got an auspicious start, both in the way of friends and finances. We, however, were cast into a fury by being unable to see the feet of the first Charleston dancers, and vowed implacable vengeance upon the person who built that gymnasium for basketball purposes. After the first act, we moved to the bleachers and enjoyed the rest.

BUT why, oh why, with a program full of good stuff, should one act be allowed to run for half an hour? Except for one case of an over-dose of an otherwise good thing, the vodvil furnished the most amusing evening in many moons.

AS cat to cat, we were rather puzzled as to the reason for representing the Petticoat as being written at the Kappa Delta house. We have been informed upon reliable authority that such is not the case, that this little paper is gotten out by a journalistic fraternity named Gamma Eta Zeta. The fraternity, of course, should feel honored at thus suddenly and unexpectedly becoming a national organization, even though said national is not exactly in its line.

THERE are still some colleges in this land of freedom which frown officially upon such satanic amusements as dancing. One of the more daring of the student organizations has recently asked that the ban upon dancing be lifted, and the faculty will consider the request. It is just as foolish to try to forbid young people to dance as it is to try to enforce blue laws or prohibition.

UNIVERSITY VODVIL PRESENTED APRIL 1 IS GREAT SUCCESS

Eighteen Well Executed Acts
Compose April Fools' Day Bill

MANY SKITS COLORFUL

Sororities and Fraternities Have Places on Program; All Acts Original; Gym Filled

The University spring Vodvil made its third annual appearance on Thursday evening April 1, in the New Gymnasium Theater, under the auspices of the Dramatic Association and the enthusiastic reception given it by the large audience crowned it an overwhelming success.

The acts on the bill had been selected as the best from among the acts of all the fraternities, sororities and other organizations on the campus. The final choice resulted in eighteen acts consisting chiefly of music, dancing or skits.

Sigma Phi Epsilon opened the evening's entertainment with a "Charleston Trio" which brought the crowd to interested attention.

Theta Upsilon Omega put on a stunt show featuring music, both on the banjo and vocal.

The first sorority act on the program was entitled "Patching The Petticoat" and was acted by the Kappa Deltas. The skit consisted of many bits of campus gossip. The Lash was the chief element satirized.

Gerald Slicker represented Sigma Chi in a monologue of witticisms of a Jewish character and with his celebrated dancing.

Eternal Triangle Scores. "The Same Old Thing," presented by the Dionysians, gave the audience an opportunity of seeing how the melodramatic eternal triangle play is directed. Betty Wiltbank played the lead in excellent fashion.

The Glee Club was represented by the University Four who sang a number of amusing and unusual songs. As usual the quartet was encored several times before being allowed to leave the stage.

Chi Omega fraternity gave an interpretation of "The Courtship of Miles Standish," with reading of the parts and an up-to-date pantomime by the actors. This mixture of Puritan and present proved an entertaining bit of play and was well received.

The next two representations were by Troubadour's actors. The first was composed of songs by Mr. Tompkins and the second consisted of two dances; a Tango and a Merry Widow Waltz.

"The Doll House" by Zeta Tau Alpha consisted of the singing of a song with the picturization of this song and a doll dance. Six of the characters represented dolls.

Tango Well Received. Eugene Le Merle and Orme Libby delighted the audience with a Tango well worthy of professionals. Extended encoring failed to bring the couple back on the stage for a repetition of this well executed dance.

ORATORICAL TRYOUTS TO BE STAGED TONIGHT

Winner Will Compete in District of Columbia Finals for National Intercollegiate Prize

Tryouts for the National Intercollegiate oratorical contest will be held in Corcoran Hall tonight at 8 o'clock. All contestants who submitted copies of their orations by April 10 will be eligible to compete.

From them will be selected the G. W. entrant for the District of Columbia finals to be held April 29, when George Washington, Georgetown, Catholic University, and the Washington Missionary College will compete for the District Championship.

The winner of this encounter will next speak in the national Semifinals for this region, on May 17, when four speakers, the champions of Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware and New Jersey, and Washington, D. C., will try for a place in the national finals.

SENIOR PROM JUNE FOUR AT MAYFLOWER HOTEL

Senior Week Plans Discussed in Committee Meeting Sunday

The Senior Prom will be held at the Mayflower Hotel June 4, it was decided last week. Arrangements for the prom have been made and were approved by the Senior Week committee, consisting of the chairmen of the various committees appointed in connection with Senior Week, at its meeting in Corcoran Hall Sunday.

At that time plans for the pilgrimage to Mount Vernon, the baseball game with the faculty and other features of Senior Week were discussed.

TELEPHONE COMPANY TO OFFER GRADS POSITIONS

The conference and interview of graduate students with representatives of the Bell Telephone System, which is held annually about this time of the year, has been announced for 7:30 p. m., Friday, April 16th, in Room 17, Corcoran Hall. All who are interested in meeting with these representatives are requested to be present. The meeting is called for the purpose of talking over the work offered by the American Telephone & Telegraph Company and the 25 Associated Companies of which the local Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Company is one. The positions offered cover a highly industrial field and several men will be selected for permanent positions in that organization.

DELTA AND PHI SIGS WIN IN FRAT SERIES

T. U. O. Loses to Delts While Sig Eps Drop Game to Phi Sigs

GAMES HOTLY CONTESTED

Other Scheduled Games Stopped by Rain, Forfeited or Postponed

Delta Tau Delta and Phi Sigma Kappa won their scheduled games in the interfraternity baseball series Sunday morning. The Sigma Chi-S. A. E. game was called on account of rain in the third inning and the two other scheduled games were not played.

The outcome of Delta Tau Delta game with Theta Upsilon Omega was uncertain until the last half of the last inning of the game. The T. U. O.'s were leading 9 to 6 at the end of their half of the seventh and last inning, and took the field in the last half determined to hold their adversaries scoreless. A couple of timely hits by the Delts and as many errors by the T. U. O.'s spoiled the Q Street crowd's chances, however, and the Delts won the game 10 to 9 with only one out in their half of the inning.

The batteries were Winters and Nichols, pitchers, and Moore, catcher, for Delta Tau Delta, and Herzog, pitcher, and Hartman and Koch, catchers for Theta Upsilon Omega.

Newby and Moore were the heavy hitters for the Delts. Pomeroy did well with the hickory for T. U. O. getting several hits, one of which was a triple with the bases loaded. Burns Price, T. U. O., also got a triple.

Herzog Fans Thirteen

Herzog struck out 13 men in seven innings, Nichols fanned 10 in six innings and Winter two in one inning. T. U. O. drove out nine hits and Delta Tau Delta seven.

Phi Sigma Kappa won from Sigma Phi Epsilon 11 to 10 in eight innings. S. P. E. had accumulated a lead of five runs in the fifth inning, when Phi Sigma Kappa began to score. The Phi Sigs began to cut down their opponents lead and caught up with them in the seventh with the score 8 to 8. The score was tied again 10 to 10 at the beginning of the eighth, and the Phi Sigs brought in one man.

Batteries for Phi Sigma Kappa were Holton and Mickey Glover, pitchers, and Staman, catcher; for S. P. E. Jean, pitcher, and Kirby Smith, catcher.

The Sigma Chi-S. A. E. game was called in the third inning on account of rain. Sigma Chi was leading 6 to 2. The game scheduled between Kappa Sigma and Acacia was postponed. Theta Delta Chi forfeited to Kappa Alpha.

MALE SONGSTERS VISIT GAITHERSBURG FRIDAY

Glee Club Schedules Many April Concerts; Quartet a Favorite in All Appearances

Four concerts are on the schedule of the Men's Glee Club of George Washington University during the next two weeks. On April 15 a concert will be given at the Grace Reformed Church in this city. The following night the club will go to Gaithersburg, Maryland, to give a concert which is being sponsored by the Epworth League of the Methodist Church. On Friday night, April 23, the men will sing at Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church in Chevy Chase. A week later, on April 30, a concert will be given in Rockville, Maryland.

The "University Four," the quartet of the club, is making a hit with its audiences and gaining considerable reputation. At the recent appearance during the "All University Concert" of the Glee Club, the quartet was recalled again and again for encores. On April 14, the "University Four" will sing at a luncheon of the Lions Club at the Mayflower Hotel. Next Saturday night it will sing at the Law School Banquet; at a later date it will sing at the Alpha Kappa Kappa Banquet.

Hour Glass Meets

Hour Glass Honor Society will meet in Room 27, Lisner Hall, tonight at 7 o'clock. Members are requested to be present.

MIMES WILL OPEN DRAMATIC SERIES TOMORROW NIGHT

First of Four Varsity Shows to Be Presented in the Gymnasium

THREE ONE-ACT PLAYS

Program Includes Two Original Productions and Boccaccio's "Untold Tale"

Tomorrow night will mark the beginning of the second annual Dramatic Festival when each of the four producing clubs of the Dramatic Association will put forth every effort to win the coveted Phi Delta Gamma cup for itself. The Mimes, who specialize in one-act plays, will present the first of the four varsity shows tomorrow night in the Gymnasium at 8:15, giving three plays, two of which were written as well as directed by students of the University.

"The Spider" is a mystery play based on the power of suggestion, and written by Charlie Hayes, and directed by Marden Green, who also plays the lead, as Van Ess, a playwright. Raymond Johnson is cast as the dramatic critic of the New York Tribune, J. K. Lund, while Leonard Jensen will act as valet to Van Ess and Howard Eager will help solve the mystery as Day, the Chief of Detectives.

The second play will be Boccaccio's "Untold Tale," described as a beautiful tragedy with its scene laid during the plague in Venice. It is being directed by Foster Hagan, assisted by Anne Ives, formerly leading lady with the Rams Head Players. The cast for the "Untold Tale" is: Florio, Maurice Joyce; Violante, Stella Porter; Olivia, Marion Booth; Lizzia, Mary Griffith, and Dionee, Foster Hagan.

The third of the group is "Trouble on Lost Mountain," an original play in southern dialect, by Foster Hagan, who has directed the play and is also playing the lead as Abe. Lonelle Davison is cast as Babe, Raymond Johnson as Grandis, Tom Mount as Chichester and Jack Hyde as Peevey. Tickets for each of the four performances will be fifty cents.

PI DELTA EPSILON HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET AT ROMA

Len Hall and Norman Baxter, New Initiates, in Wit Duel Over Festive Banquet

Len Hall shed his wit and Norman Baxter his buttons as Pi Delta Epsilon convened over the festive board at the Roma, Wednesday, March 31, to celebrate its annual banquet. The well-known dramatic editor of the News and the equally well-known sports editor of the Post, newly elected honorary members, shared honors with Prof. Henry G. Doyle, Prof. DeWitt C. Croissant, and Prof. Daniel C. Chace, who were also present.

Len Hall decried the modern sport writer who attended the various contests in disreputable and often ragged clothing, contending that sports would be greatly uplifted if those covering it for the daily newspapers would dress as befits gentlemen, wearing afternoon clothes to afternoon affairs and evening clothes when contests were staged at night.

Norman Baxter vigorously opposed the principles as laid down by Len Hall. He rapidly downed all the arguments of the dramatic critic and was just about to strike the final etymological blow when his borrowed dress suit refused to stand the strain and he had suddenly to desist.

Over twenty-five men, distinguished upon the campus for their journalistic ability, attended the banquet. Short speeches were made by Professors Croissant and Chace, President Dan McGrew, "Bun" Tolson, and Howard Baggett. Professor Doyle acted as toastmaster. Among the alumni present were Melville Walker and Robert Albright, former editors of the Hatchet.

Tickets can be secured from the secretary of the club, Mr. Ivan Booher, 1707 Massachusetts Avenue, or members of the committee.

FROSH TO FROLIC AT GET TOGETHER DANCE

A real "Frosh" frolic, which is to take the form of a "get together" dance, will be given by the Freshmen of Columbian College in room 1 of Corcoran Hall, on the evening of Friday, April 16.

President Ray Edmonston and his corps of class officers is making extensive preparations for the "mixer" which is to be the first of the season's functions for the "wearers of the green." He reports a good sale of tickets and says that with the cooperation of the class it will be a success. Tickets are $1 per couple (one of whom must be a Freshman).

Dancing will begin at 9:30 and continue until 12:30. Music for the occasion will be furnished by Bran Hughes' syncopaters.

The George Washington Girls' Glee Club, nearing the close of its busiest and most successful season, crowned its season's achievements by singing at the Hebrew Benefit Concert Tuesday evening, April 6, at the Washington auditorium, appearing on the program with Mary Lewis, talented young Metropolitan Opera star.

Miss Estelle Wentworth, director of the Club, is to be toastmistress and an elaborate program is being planned. A large part of the success and growing prominence of the club is said to be due to its director, Miss Wentworth.

MEN'S DEBATING TEAM TO MEET MARYLAND U.

Face College Parkers This Month; Dinner to Be Given Men's and Women's Squads

The men's debating team will close its season the latter part of this month when it meets the strong team of Maryland University on the subject "Resolved: That Congress should pass House bill No. 5,000 providing for a Federal Department of Education," in a forensic match to be held at College Park.

Gallagher, Seymore, and Kirkland will compose the team representing George Washington University. Prof. C. S. Richardson, coach of the Old Line team, has not announced his lineup.

The Hatchetmen, represented by Hoagland, Trimble, and Crowell, were winners over the Marylanders last season by a narrow margin, and the G. W. team is seeking a repetition of this victory.

Dinner at St. James

The women's and men's debating squads and the members of the debate council are to attend a dinner to be given them at the St. James Hotel Tuesday evening, April 20, at 7:30. Prof. Gilbert L. Hall, chairman of the debate council, will preside.

The men's team has been successful in three of their six starts thus far this season, having defeated Oxford University, University of Oklahoma and Syracuse University, and lost to Bates College, Center College, and the University of Wyoming. Besides the intercollegiate contests several radio debates have been held. The team has also appeared before several citizens organizations.

G. W. CLUB BENEFIT PARTY HELD TO RAISE CUP FUNDS

The G. W. Club Benefit Party given Thursday evening, March 25, in the University Cafeteria was, although not well-attended, very entertaining with bridge-playing, and a clever reading to amuse the guests.

The Club earned about fifty dollars which will help pay for the equipment which has already been donated to the gym. The proceeds will also go to pay for a cup to be presented at the G. W. Club banquet in May to the girl in the Senior class who has been most active in athletics for four years.

INTERCLASS TRACK MEET SATURDAY ON EASTERN HIGH OVAL

Everything is in Readiness For Third Annual Cinder Classic April 17

COMPETITION TO BE KEEN

Interfraternity and Intersorority Relays Feature Program; Both Girls and Men Compete

Everything is in readiness for the Third Annual Inter-Class Track and Field Meet of the University to be held at Eastern High School Stadium, Saturday, April 17, under the auspices of the G. W. Club. At that time members of the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Classes, both men and women, will strive to win for their respective classes the highly prized Louis A. Fischer Memorial Class Trophy, won in 1924 and 1925 by the Senior Class.

A number of students have been training on the various cinder paths in the city during the Easter holidays in preparation for the events in which they desire to participate. Sorority and fraternity relay teams have been seen practicing for the feature events. The women of the University have been diligently training under the direction of Miss Hopkins, Women's Athletic Director, for their track and field events. Everything points to a greater Inter-Class Meet this year than previous meets have been.

Handicaps for Non-Varsity Men

Every student who can possibly do so, whether in training or not, is urged by the G. W. Club and his Class officers to enter one or more events as there is every chance to win a place in the events listed. In order to give those students who are not members of the Varsity Track Team more than an even chance in competition handicaps will be given in all "open" track events and Varsity Track Men, that is, those who have won a letter in Track or have competed as members of the Varsity Track Team, will not be permitted to enter the "closed" events.

No handicaps, however, will be given in any of the field events. Furthermore, a man trying for the "closed" events medals will be given two points if he places third or fourth in the "open" events, one point if he places fifth, and 1-2 point if he places sixth. These points will count on the "closed" event medals only. Otherwise, places in the "open," "closed," and women's events count 5, 3, and 1 for first, second and third places, respectively.

Twenty-four Events Listed

There will be twenty-four events on the program of the Inter-Class Meet this year, eight "open" and three "closed" events for men; seven events for women; and the two feature events, the Inter-Sorority and Inter-Fraternity Relay Races. These events provide a program with enough variety to please the most ardent track enthusiast. Within the next two or three years Inter-Class and Inter-Departmental Relay Races will undoubtedly be added to the program as relay racing is always interesting.

Entry Blanks for the Inter-Class Meet, which contain a list of the various events, are available at the (Continued on page 3)

AN OPPORTUNITY

Those truly interested in G. W. athletics, especially the kind developed within the University, will find in the Third Annual Inter-Class Meet to be held Saturday the chance for development of inter-class spirit, which in the end engenders that intangible thing called University spirit.

The G. W. Club is to be commended for fostering this intramural form of athletics. There is no reason why, from the number that come out to compete for the various events, there should not be material for the greatest of track teams. There is no reason why the University spirit thus fostered should not grow and extend to other sports and other activities and be carried on from year to year, ever growing and ever increasing, to the end that George Washington will be represented by the strongest athletic bodies in the collegiate world.

Let the critic of our lack of spirit now prove his mettle. Let him boost this meet; let him compete and bring his fellow students to compete. Let's make this the big athletic event of the year. It is the opportunity to develop spirit. Let us make the most of it.

THE LAST LAP

Monday marked the opening of the second part of the last semester of the school term this year, and as such was a significant date with regard to scholastic affairs at this University. After the frantic weeks of preparation and the even more frantic days of the taking of the midwinter examinations the natural student reaction was to cast studies aside and engage in a riotous sequence of promenades, teas, parties and other social functions.

By this time the strain of such things is beginning to tell on the socially inclined members of the student body and the corresponding effect is becoming evident in the grades of those members. It is, then, at this time, when the strict lines of study have been evaded for a half semester and the succession of social events is becoming a strain, if not a bore, that the student body again turns, slowly at first and then sensing the nearness of the finals, with ever increasing application, to the pursuit of the required learning.

Let us then anticipate a little the last few weeks of school and their corresponding nightmare of frantic scholastic endeavor on the part of the delinquent students, and begin now to prepare in a more leisurely and perhaps a more thorough way for that dilemma of final examinations which stands in the way of a successful school year.

THE MIMES' VARSITY

The Dramatic Festival opened April 1 with the S. R. O. signs in evidence. Vociferous applause attested the satisfaction of the audience with the third Annual Vaudeville presentation. Thursday the Mimes offer their contribution to the Festival in the form of three short plays, two of which are student-written. Last year the Mimes carried off the cup offered by the Phi Delta Gamma fraternity, so interest is naturally rife over the nature and quality of this year's production. Dramatics have been greatly stimulated at George Washington by this type of inter-group rivalry, culminating in the Festival. Those on the outside should show their appreciation of the hard work necessary to the successful presentation of these eminently worthwhile offerings by generous support and advertising among friends.

THE HOME STRETCH

Examinations loom big on the George Washington horizon as the Easter week closes. Try as he will to keep his mind on spring and the joys thereof, the student finds the days darkened by the shadow of coming disaster. The Speedway is attractive these days, Rock Creek has its charm, and even the campus seems to take on unusual beauty. But it is worth while to graduate! It will be worth while to spend these perfect days in the less fascinating pursuits of study, so that when June does arrive we won't be looking forward with despair to weeks of summer school to make up for those glorious short weeks of spring.

Theta Upsilon Omega held an informal dance at the chapter house Thursday, April 8, at which about twenty-five couples were present. The music was peppy, the refreshments delicious, and the dance was, in general, delightful.

A number of Delta Zetas spent Wednesday and Thursday of last week at a camp above Great Falls. Outside of the usual camp rain there were no disasters and the two days were much enjoyed.

The pledges of Theta Upsilon Omega fraternity gave a series of skits for the entertainment of the brothers at the chapter house Sunday afternoon. A buffet supper, served by the "goats," followed the presentations.

On Saturday Vivian and Helen Robb were hostesses at a lunch for the Delta Zetas. Following the lunch the whole party went to the matinee at the National Theatre.

The Holiday season was celebrated by the Acacia Fraternity with a dinner at 8 p. m. and a dance at 10 p. m. on Monday, April 5, at the fraternity house, 1707 Massachusetts Avenue. A string orchestra furnished music for the dinner after which the Paragon Orchestra rendered music for the dance. Several novelty dances appropriate to the Easter season were on the program. Dr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Updegraff and Professor and Mrs. James H. Platt were the special guests.

Mildred Morgan entertained the Delta Zetas with a party at her home Thursday evening, April 8.

The experimental cookery class in Home Economics, under the direction of Doctor Minna C. Denton entertained President Lewis, Dean Wilbur, and Mr. Holmes at a luncheon held recently. Sylvia Scheer presided as host and Evelyn Best as hostess.

The Kappa Delta sorority held an "open house" in honor of their removal to their new home, 1703 Que Street, N. W., last Sunday afternoon. A large crowd of guests helped the K. D.'s "warm" their new residence.

A wedding of unusual interest to G. W. is that of Nan Darton to Bill Kerlin, which took place yesterday evening at 5 o'clock at St. Matthews Church, followed by a large reception at the Washington Club. The entire wedding party was composed of students and alumni, including Helen Newton, maid-of-honor, Mrs. Max Prentiss, matron-of-honor, Jo Ramage, Mary Harrison, Joan Collins and Blanche Wingo bridesmaids and Gerald Kerlin, Arthur Darton, Johnnie Ketcham, Jr., Albert Law, Howard Gray, Ben Foster and Lew Wallace. Nan and Bill are both well known at the University, the bride being a member of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority and the groom of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

The pledges of the Chi Omega fraternity were at home to the other pledges on the campus last Sunday afternoon from 4 to 6 in the fraternity rooms, with Misses Dorothy Lewis, Mary Temple Hill and Marjorie White presiding at the tea-table.

Almost every date during the holidays was filled with some fraternity dance, the Kappa Sigmas choosing Friday for their Hop at the House on Nineteenth Street.

Pi Beta Phi entertained at a tea dance on Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 7 in Corcoran Hall, for the benefit of their settlement school in Tennessee, with Dean Rose and Miss Kin-cannon chaperoning.

The Washington Country Club was the scene of a most enjoyable dance Wednesday evening when Alpha Delta Pi entertained a number of guests.

Wasn't it fun to see "who" sent "whom" corsages on Easter Sunday?—and they do say—

The Washington Alumnae chapter of Chi Omega gave a bridge party for the benefit of the National Service Fund, Saturday evening at the Hotel Hamilton, with about fifty tables in play.

Delta Pi chapter of Sigma Nu entertained with an Easter dance, Tuesday, April 6, with Dick Leibert's Sangamo Band, furnishing the music for the occasion.

The pledges of Sigma Kappa were the guests of honor at a dance Monday, April 12, given by the active chapter at the Grace Dodge Hut.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon danced Easter Monday evening at their home on 16th Street, with a large crowd attending.

Did you hear about the Sigma Nu's party at Le Paradis Wednesday night? Ask Davie—he knows!

PHI SIGMA KAPPA GIVES DANCE AT MANOR CLUB

Ninety couples were present at the spring dance of Phi Sigma Kappa held at the Manor Country Club Saturday, April 3. Representatives from all social fraternities and sororities on the campus were among the invited guests. Hand painted handkerchiefs proved novel favors.

Hon. Frank L. Bowman and Mrs. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Ester, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Batt, and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Zirkle were the chaperons.

HATCHETITE TRACKMEN GET BOTH PLAZA FIRSTS

Willett and Sterns Cop Two-mile and Half-mile Runs

Buff and Blue trackmen accounted for both first places and one second place in the two events held at the Plaza track meet last Sunday morning.

Hurd Willett, stellar distance man, was slightly pushed to win the two-mile race, which he took in the excellent time of 10 minutes 10 seconds. Shipley, his former teammate, was second, and Schaub, Aloysius club was third.

Sterns, of G. W., won the half-mile run, and Myer was second. The race was run in the time of 2:19.

EMBRYO DIVINES DEBATE CHURCH AND EVOLUTION

A debate on the question, "Resolved: The mission of the church has been hindered by its opposition to the theory of evolution," was the chief feature of the meeting of the Ministerial Association held Tuesday, March 30.

The affirmative of the argument was upheld by Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Snell. Mr. Taylor and Mr. Butler championed the negative side. After the debate a lively discussion was entered upon by the whole society. The press agent, however, did not divulge whether the embryo divines decided for or against the church in its opposition to evolution.

The meeting opened with President Johnson in the chair. Announcement was made that the Association had been recognized as a school activity. Two new members were admitted to the Association. They were Mr. Frederick Voorhees and Mr. Anderson.

Arrangements were also made to conduct a chapel service in the near future, permission having recently been obtained from those in charge.

FRATERNITY MEN PRIME FOR TENNIS TOURNAMENT

The tennis courts around the city have been haunted during the past week by the different fraternities in their attempt to discover talent good enough to represent their frat in the Interfraternity Tennis Tournament which gets under way this week.

The managers of the teams are having difficulty arranging matches, as most of the men are working and attending school during the evening. Some have hit upon a good plan of playing off the matches early in the morning before time for work. As the teams must complete the first round by April 18 it will be necessary for the managers to get together and hit upon some plan agreeable to all or the matches will not be completed in time.

UNIVERSITY VODVIL PRESENTED APRIL 1

"A Pair of Lunatics." A novel feature of the evening was "The Florida Sextet" offered by Phi Sigma Kappa including much dancing and singing. The F. S. K. "ladies" were well done.

Dancing again predominated in the beautifully costumed "Russian Peasant Dance" of Phi Mu fraternity. This dance was very colorful, the peasant costumes adding much to the presentation.

"The Pirate Play," interpreted by Pi Beta Phi consisted of a great deal of treasure hunting by fierce and lusty pirates. The treasures finally selected were the University Hatchet, The Cherry Tree, and The Ghost; from which the sheet was lifted for an instance.

"The Fight That Was Never Fought," "The Fantastic Toe," and "Love 'Em With Poetry," were the themes of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon dancing acts.

"In the Gym" demonstrated how physical education could be done just as well backwards and with much more excitement. Kappa Sigma entertained with a series of small acts accompanied by banjo, dancing and singing.

The purpose of the Vodvil, besides providing an extremely entertaining evening, is to make money for the benefit of the Gymnasium Equipment Fund.

SPLINTERS FROM SPORTDOM

Showing at W. and M. Good

Stars were G. W. Men

Spring Football is Progressing

By DOMY DOMIGAN

Note: Splinters comes as a special dispatch to the Hatchet from Sunbury, Ohio, this week, as "Domy" Domigan, its editor, spent the Easter vacation at his home there.

The showing of the G. W. squad in the William and Mary track meet was anything but discouraging. With only a short period of training—most of which was indoors and a number of the stars unable to make the trip—the local boys were able to take as many firsts as the Indians and were beaten only because there were not men to fill the need in certain of the events. With a complete and more experienced team available for the remaining meets, the prospects for the Hatchet runners for the rest of the season are very bright.

Although William and Mary won the track meet, the outstanding stars were all wearers of the Buff and Blue. Captain Loehler was high-point man of the meet with a total of 21 points including four firsts, while Aaronson added fifteen to the G. W. total. Willett annexed 10 more when he performed the iron-man stunt in winning the mile and two-mile. One of the amusing features of the meet was when Aaronson—not entered by the coach in the hurdles—entered the highs on his own initiative and came through with a second place.

Spring football—in full swing during the last three weeks—is now half over and Coach Crum states the boys are coming fine and prospects are more than ever encouraging for a winning team next year. The coach undergoes some disadvantage in having to adapt his practice plans and scrimmage rules to the small squad reporting but it is evident that during their spring schooling these boys are making rapid strides. With the number of new men in prospect for next season added to the present squad we are confident that the 1927 team will give a good account of itself in carrying out the schedule before it.

CHAPEL TODAY

INTER-CLASS TRACK MEET AT EASTERN HIGH OVAL

ous events, will be found posted on the various bulletin boards. Every contestant will be required to fill out an entry blank. This should be done, if possible, before the day of the meet and forwarded to H. A. Tolson, President G. W. Club, 1733 N. St., N. W., as it will facilitate greatly the work of the committee in charge.

The Rules and Regulations of the Inter-Class Meet should be read by every contestant as these rules will govern. Copies of these rules are posted on the University bulletin boards. It should be noted that spiked shoes will only be permitted in the "open" events and are barred in the "closed" or "feature" events.

Eastern High Stadium Site

The meet will begin promptly at 1.00 p. m., at Eastern High School Stadium when the starter sends the men in the "open" 100-yard dash, the first event on the program, on their way.

The officials handling the meet will consist chiefly of members of the G. W. Club and faculty of the University. Thomas F. Proby, coach of the Varsity Track Team, will act as chief judge; H. A. Tolson, President, G. W. Club and Captain of Track in 1923 and 1924 will act as starter; James Sprigman, Central High coach in baseball and track, will act as chief timer, and will be assisted by Professor Moss and I. A. Peake, former Varsity Track quarter-mile. Track and field judges will include Professors Doyle, Hall, Croissant, Bolwell, Donaldson, and Sutton. Miss Hopkins, Women's Athletic Director, and Alice Haines, President, Women's G. W. Club, will assist in an official capacity. Stanley Tracy, Editor, Cherry Tree, and former track manager, will be clerk of the Track events, while George Martin, manager of the Track Team, will be clerk of the field events.

Many Prizes to Be Awarded

Gold, Silver, and Bronze Medals will be awarded point winners in the "open," "closed" and women's events by the G. W. Club; Bronze Medals to the winners of the mile and two-mile runs; and a distinctive bronze medal to every contestant who places in an event but who does not win a point medal. A silver cup, donated by Coach Proby of the Track Team, will be awarded to the individual point winner, men's "open" events, and a silver cup, donated by the Women's G. W. Club, will be awarded to the individual point winner, women's events. Pan-Hellenic donates a cup to the winning sorority team in the Inter-Sorority Relay Race and the Inter-Fraternity Council to the winner of the Inter-Fraternity Relay Race. Chi Omega has won the Pan-Hellenic Trophy the past two years and if that sorority wins it again this year the Trophy becomes its permanent possession.

It is expected by those in charge of the Third Inter-Class Meet that many of the meet records will be broken this year. Some of the present records are good but several are only mediocre.

TRACKMEN LOSE TO WILLIAM AND MARY

Indians Win Meet by Capturing Second and Third Places

LOEHLER HIGH POINT MAN

Aaronson and Willett also Star on Track, Each Winning First Places

Scoring heavily in second and third places, William and Mary track athletes took the long end of a score of 78 to 48 at Williamsburg, April 8. John Loehler, G. W.'s stellar hurdler and weight thrower, was high point man with 21 points.

G. W. broke even with the Indians on first places, each team taking seven. The 30 point advantage credited to the Virginia team was earned by taking either second or third in every event and both of those places in many contests.

Willett, Buff and Blue distance runner, took first in the two events in which he was entered, the one-mile and the two-mile run.

Aaronson scored a first place for G. W. in the pole vault, and took second in the 100-yard dash, second in the 120 high hurdles, second in the broad jump and third in the javelin throw.

Five G. W. Men Place

Anderson placed in the mile and Brown in the 220-yard dash. These five men did all of the scoring for the Hatchettes.

Grove in the field events and Hoof in the dashes starred for William and Mary. The Indians did not, however, rely upon any one man to furnish a large number of points, but scored by having a large number of men who were able to place.

Yates, William and Mary quarter-mile, set a new mark for the college of 51.5 for the 440-yard dash, bettering a mark set several years ago.

William and Mary scored 43 points on the track and 35 in the field. G. W. made 29 points in the races and 19 in the weights and jumping events.

The team has been working out daily since the William and Mary meet at the Georgetown University track through the courtesy of the athletic officials of that university.

RIFLEMEN SHOOT HIGH IN LAST INDOOR MATCH

Pick Team to Compete in Intercollegiate Championship Meet in New York City

George Washington riflemen totaled 1935 last week in a telegraphic match with the University of California in the last indoor match of the season. As yet the University of California scores have not been received. The score was made up as follows: Smith 390, T. A. Riley 389, Leighy 388, H. E. Riley 385, Strawbridge 383.

The team will probably begin its outdoor practice next Sunday at the Camp Sims range.

The Intercollegiate Championship will be run off in a shoulder-to-shoulder match to be held in the near future on the range of the Crescent Club in New York City. It was formerly expected that one stage of this match would be held in Washington, but later developments made it more desirable to hold the match in New York.

Coach Stokes and six picked men will make the trip in the hope of doing great honor to George Washington University. These men are Baxter Smith, manager of the team, John A. Pluge, assistant manager of the team, T. A. Riley, H. E. Riley, F. Nelson Strawbridge, and Robert Leighy.

BEGINNERS RIFLE MATCH WON BY FRANCES HEID

Elizabeth Hall Leads Fresh Girls, Eileen Phillips Victor Among Sophomores

Frances Heid, one of the freshman assistant managers, was the winner of the Beginners Match which was held by the girls' Rifle team for three weeks before the Easter holidays. Her averages were 92 prone and 45 off-hand.

Elizabeth Hall was high scorer in the Freshman class, with an average of 89 prone and 44 off-hand.

In the sophomore class, Eileen Phillips was victor. Her average was 90 prone and 44 off-hand.

The cup which is to be given to the winner, and the awards to the various class victors will be made at the May Day Fete. Much interest was shown in the match, and as the scores indicate, the competition was keen.

When the runners are bunched on the track—and suddenly Chuck, your own superman half-miler, spurts ahead on the finish and wins—have a Camel!

Into the making of this one cigarette goes all of the ability of the world's largest organization of expert tobacco men. Nothing is too good for Camels. The choicest Turkish and domestic tobaccos. The most skillful blending. The most scientific package. No other cigarette made like Camels. No better cigarette can be made. Camels are the overwhelming choice of experienced smokers.

WHEN the lithe half-milers are fighting for the lead. And your own dauntless champion suddenly soars ahead and wins—have a Camel!

For you'll never find another friend so attuned to your triumphs as Camel. Camels are made of the choicest tobaccos grown—they never disappoint your taste. Camels annihilated cigarette after-taste. ### The Ox Woman

On an East Indian farm, where the crop is tea, a wooden plow turns up the rich black soil. A woman drives, another woman pulls—and a black ox pulls beside her.

Six hours under a tropical sun, a bowl of cold rice—and six hours more. Then the woman goes to her bed of rushes, and the beast to his mud stall. Tomorrow will be the same.

The American home has many conveniences. But many American women often work as hard as their Oriental sisters. They toil at the washtub, they carry water, they churn by hand—all tasks which electricity can do for them at small cost, in half the time.

The labor-saving possibilities of electricity are constantly becoming more widely recognized. And the social significance of the release of the American woman from physical drudgery, through the increasing use of electricity in and about the home, will appeal instantly to every college man and woman.

The electric light, the electric iron, the vacuum cleaner—the use of electricity on the farm for pumping water, for milking, and for the cream separator—are helping to make life happier. General Electric research and engineering have aided in making these conveniences possible.

A new series of G-E advertisements showing what electricity is doing in many fields will be sent on request. Ask for booklet GEK-18.

PROMINENT CHEMIST TO ADDRESS TWO SOCIETIES

"The Relation of the Electric Furnace to Industry in Times of Peace and War" will be the subject of an address to be delivered before a joint meeting of the Chemical and Engineering Societies of the University on Wednesday, April 14, at 8.15 P. M.

This is in line with the program inaugurated at the start of the year by these societies to have prominent industrialists present the practical accomplishments of science and of even greater importance to form worthwhile contacts for the university and thereby foster a receptive attitude toward the graduate.

The subject will be presented by A. Cressy Morrison, Director of Public Relations of the Union Carbide Company, representing with its subsidiaries of the type of the National Carbon Company, the largest electric furnace factory in the world. Mr. Morrison is chairman of Secretary Hoover's Advisory Committee.

President Lewis has accepted an invitation extended by the societies and officials of the Departments of Commerce, Agriculture, Interior, and War are expected to be present.

MASONS TO MEET

Hatchet Reviews of Current Shows

By JOE D. WALSTROM

TOO LATE FOR REVIEW

The National Theatre Players opened Monday night with the second offering of their spring season, which happens to be Max Marcin's amusing comedy entitled, "Three Live Ghosts." This company, which did so well here last summer, has added several new members, and if we may use a little Rotary Club lingo, is Bigger and Better than ever.

POLIS

The venerable and highly touted "Blossom Time" opened another week at Poll's Sunday night to a crowd of veterans, Schubert lovers and three people who had never seen the production before.

I feel heretical and a bit low-browed but I didn't react to the show in the accepted manner. Depending entirely on the popularity of some of the better known Schubert airs, the play proved to be a bit dull, lacking both in comedy and chorus. Although no one can criticize the songs themselves, may I suggest that they were of a sameness, which proved to be rather dull by the end of the third act. Mizel's part, by Mary Powell, was well sung, and Bellabruna was in good voice, too, if I may say so.

The Serenade and the Song of Love were very pretty, of course, but—somehow the whole thing was so darned saccharine. ELBERT.

BELASCO

No one can deny the fact that "The Kiss in a Taxi" is funny. I went to the Belasco expecting to see the latest technique on necking a la Speedway, and while I didn't increase my knowledge in that respect I did see an amusing French comedy. When it comes to writing plays, these French boys certainly do know how to make them risqué, and in adapting this from the French, apparently little has been lost of the spicy element.

The plot, which is complicated to say the least, hinges about a young lady of Paris who might be said to be afflicted with moral turpitude. With this as a starting point, you can see for yourself that there are excellent possibilities. The finished acting of Arthur Byrro and Janet Beecher, who are supported by a fine cast, helps to make "The Kiss in a Taxi" a light and frothy entertainment. JOE.

JACK

Rev. John Dean Milligan has relinquished the dramatic editor's toga in order to devote more time to his duties on one of the local dailies. Under Prof. Milligan's guiding genius this column has become a household word in every home throughout these United States (to say nothing of Japan, Indo-China and New Jersey), and it gives us great pleasure, folks of the radio audience, to announce that he will continue to review shows for us. Needless to say, our noble fight for the Uplift of the Drama will go on.

PALACE

After a recent sad feline fracas on our lovely campus, everybody has been reading the illustrious Washington Times, and therefore everybody is probably familiar with "Sandy," the literary masterpiece by Elinore Meherin. Not being conversant with the serial, this review of the same name follows the plot of the story, but still determined not to read the novel.

All this involved introduction leads to the fact that "Sandy," the feature at the Palace this week, is quite rational and interesting for about four reels, and then takes a slump. It concerns a cute but unthinking little jazz baby who makes an unfortunate marriage, and then has affairs with nearly every unattached male on the Pacific Coast. Her amours lead one of her sterling and serious lovers to shoot her, and after clearing another boy friend of the crime, she dies. There are several gay scenes of the sadistic soirees of our degenerate youth which will amuse even the most hardened frat man.

Beauteous Madge Bellamy does creditably in the title role, and the rest of the players include Harrison Ford, Joan Standing, and a newcomer laboring under the handicap of a signature reading Bardson Bard. The usual extra reels and Tom Gannon's superior music are also on tap. ROACCIA.

RIALTO

John Barrymore in "The Sea Beast," from the novel, "Moby Dick," by Herman Melville, is the feature at the Rialto this week. It is a powerful and thrilling tale of the New England whaling vessels in olden days. Mr. Barrymore is not my idea of the "sea-going" type, but in spite of the unsuitability of the role he handles it well, as all good little Barrymores should. Seriously speaking, the tensely dramatic moments, which range from passionate, yet tender, love scenes to dramatic heights of the lust of hate and revenge are lived, not acted. They lift one out of himself, which is drama's greatest mission.

Dolores Costello I have placed at last. Her loveliness has haunted me with a vague reminiscence. Sunday I discovered she is Elsie Ferguson minus a dozen years, considerable avoirdupois, and much of the, to me, divine Elsie's fire. But she has charm, and with that a woman, particularly an actress, can accomplish awesome things. The rest of the cast is excellent.

The usual supplementary features. I might add that Mischa Guterson's Sunday concerts are proving worthwhile and successful. The fifth of the series, in compliment to the lady patrons, yielded notably well-executed renditions of Liszt's "Liebestraum" and Ponchielli's "Dance of the Hours." HELEN.

METROPOLITAN

Our greatest American woman, Peggy, formerly Miss Upton, Mrs. Hopkins, Madame Joyce, and now Countess Morner, is the principal attraction at the Metropolitan this week. Madame la Comtesse is starring in her first movie, "The Skyrocket," and much to the surprise of this cynical critic, is getting away with it. Having known Madame, and therefore cognizant of her somewhat skinny shape of recent years, this reviewer was prepared to discover her somewhat stiff and unattractive on the screen, but he was also pleasantly shocked to find that she can act.

Her vehicle, a trite tale of an unknown extra girl who attains movie stardom and ruins her career with extravagances until she marries the hero, is chiefly interesting for its insight into heinous Hollywood. Drop in the Met some time soon and see for yourself what the guests guzzle at a film party. Supporting Madame la Comtesse in excellent fashion are the veteran Earle Williams, Owen Moore, Gladys Hulette, and Sammy Cohen.

Waring's Pennsylvanians, who are not so hot this week, an Acap's Fable, a news reel, and Dan Breckin's music are also on the bill. Well worth the admission price, studs. JACK.

COLUMBIA

Those who like their romance all drool and several yards wide will enjoy "Beverly of Graustark," the feature at the Columbia, which packed the patient public in last week, and is squeezing them a little tighter this.

The film deviates widely from McCutcheon's maiden-maddening novel, but the story's characters are all present, including the beautiful Veverly Calhoun, Prince Danton of Dawsberg, Prince Oscar of Graustark, General Marlanax, and Duke Travina. These nobly named people get into trouble or stay out of trouble when Beverly, an American girl, masquerades as the rightful King of Graustark. The picture as a whole is rather disappointing, especially as it comes so soon after "The King on Main Street," "The Merry Widow," etc.

Marion Davies, Creighton Hale, Roy d'Arcy, and Antonio Moreno are in the cast. Short films and Brusiloff's music contribute the rest of the program. ESTELLE.

AND the bigger they are, the harder they fall, as Shakespeare or somebody said. You can prove this beyond question with a jimmy-pipe and a tidy red tin of Prince Albert. Any time. Anywhere. As a matter of fact, tackling pipe-grouches is P. A.'s regular business.

Cool and sweet and fragrant, P. A.'s wonderful smoke comes curling up the pipe-stem, filling your system with a new brand of pipe-pleasure. You smoke—and smile! For the first time in your life, you've found the one tobacco that scales to your blueprint of bliss.

Slow or fast, no matter how you feed it, P. A. never bites your tongue or parches your throat. Those important items were taken care of in the original plans by the Prince Albert process. Get yourself a tidy red tin of this friendly tobacco today.

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.
